JUDGE ALMONT BREAKS UP HONEYMOON IN TEARS; HE CHANGES HIS MIND AND DE-LAYS CASE; SMILES

United Press Service
SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—Monday Miss Marion Horne was in tears; Tuesday she was in smiles again. She was summoned to Justice Gordon's court as a witness against a woman shoplifter. The case was continued to October 14, when Miss Horne, who is a singsong, heard that she broke into tears.

"I cannot be here then," she told the clerk. He looked worried, and said something about the necessity of getting her under bond. Judge Gordon overheard the conversation, and started an inquiry. He learned that Miss Horne was to be married in a few days, and it would break up her honey-moon trip if she had to be in court October 14th.

He continued the case for two weeks.

"What will be the name when the case comes up again?" asked the clerk.

"Mrs. B. C. Keeler," she replied.

Favorites for the $50,000 Auto Race

From top to bottom—Dario Resta, Hob Burman, Barney Oldfield, Earl Cooper, Ralph De Palma.

These great auto racers are the favorites for the Astor cup race, the prizes for which amount to $50,000.
The Sheephead Bay race track in New York, the scene in past years of the races of the greatest horses the world has known, has been built over for the purpose. Of these auto drivers perhaps Resta is the most sensational. In five starts in great races he has won four. He broke the 500-mile and intermediate records in Chicago earlier in the year.

To give a wide distribution of the money and insure a big field continuing in the race to the end, the purse of $50,000 will be split into twelve prizes, as follows: First, $20,000; second $10,000; third $5,000; fourth $4,000; fifth $3,000; sixth $2,000; seventh $1,400; eighth $1,200; ninth $1,100; tenth $1,000; eleventh $800; twelfth $500.

CLAIM RECORD WALRUS CATCH

CAPTAIN OF STEAMER CORWIN REPORTS A CATCH OF 1,810 WALRUSES—UNUSUAL CONDI-TIONS IN NORTH

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—A catch of 1, 810 walrus, the largest ever made in one season, was reported today by Captain O. A. Aasevik of the steamer Corwin, which returned yesterday from a five months cruise in the Arctic. The Corwin made two trips, using Nome, Alaska, as her base.

Walrus hides are said to be in great demand in eastern ammunition factories, where they are used for bur-nishing steel shrapnel cases.

"There was unusual conditions in the far north this year and the ice bergs and floes were farther south than I have ever seen them before," said Captain Aasevik. "There was a big blizzard on the Fourth of July, and more than ten inches of snow was on the Corwin's deck before the storm was over. There was also a great deal of ice off the Siberian coast, especially near Cape North." Captain Aasevik said the Eskimos were very prosperous this year as a result of the successful hunting sesson.
